

quirk in the law, that eliminated for a period of time, they came in and put in signs and now they are going to be compensated for that. That is very unfair. It looks like we have no recourse in doing anything about it, the bill as amended by committee would have allowed amortization but evidently that is unconstitutional. Nevertheless for the record there is at least one state senator down here that is very upset with the State of Nebraska being taken advantage of over the past few months and I wish to God there was a way that we could deal with those people because they have ripped off the taxpayers by this effort and should be dealt with accordingly.
